

DANNY DeVITO

I NEED THAT

A photograph of Danny DeVito, wearing glasses and a blue and orange plaid shirt, smiling and holding a green plate with a floral pattern. He is standing in a room with floral wallpaper, a lamp, and various household items scattered around, suggesting a cluttered environment.

Danny DeVito stars with his daughter, Lucy DeVito, and Ray Anthony Thomas in a comedy about a reclusive hoarder, Sam, who doesn't get out much.

Actually, he doesn't get out at all, choosing instead for the safety of his house in the company of his things—his many, many things. But when he receives a notice from the government warning him that he must clean up his property or face eviction, he's forced to reckon with what's trash, what's treasure, and whether we can ever know the difference between the two.

I NEED THAT is a deeply human new comedy written by Theresa Rebeck and directed by Moritz von Stuelpnagel, the team behind Bernhardt/Hamlet.
